

09.30 - 09.45	Registration and Welcome	Introduction to the UCAT
09.45 - 10.45	Verbal Reasoning	Comprehension and True / False / Can't tell questions, with tips on skim reading and prioritising key words, making no assumptions, basic numbers skills and common tricks employed by question setters.
10.45 - 11.00	Break
11.00 - 12.00	Decision Making	Syllogisms, logic puzzles, strongest argument, interpreting information, Venn diagrams and probability, with tips and tricks on doing well in all sections, including a thorough understanding of important definitions used in this section of the UCAT.
12.00 - 12.15	Break
12.15 - 13.15	Quantitative Reasoning	Percentages, probability, ratios and proportions, time and distance, rates of change, permutations, tax and interest, simple and compound interest, areas, perimeters, surface area and volume, with tips on skim reading, excluding options, rounding, paying attention to units, unit conversions and key calculations/formulae.
13.15 - 14.15	Lunch break
14.15 - 15.15	Situational Judgement	Knowledge, skills and performance, safety and quality, communication, partnerships and teamwork, maintaining trust, including tips on appropriate to very appropriate, important to not important at all, and rounding-type questions, incorporating beneficence, non-maleficence, autonomy and justice.
15.15 - 15.30	Break
15.30 - 16.30	Mock Exam	Practice questions from all four sections under timed, examination conditions, followed by feedback.
16.30 - 17.00	Q&A	Final tips and preparation strategies for doing well in UCAT.